Dear Helen & Wanda. I got your letter today. Sorry the weather is raining again You must be very careful about drying out & dusting your beds every day especially when the tent cover is damp.
Everybody here seems as usual.
Maggie is considerably better than when I left.

I went to the Mageis yesterday & put the Utah St property in their hands. They said they would examine & value it & sell only when the right time & offer came.
The money is all paid on Helen's Block & deed delivered. & the deed made out for the old Mill & ready for Helen's signature. Duane will probably close trade for John place in a day or two. Have not seen Charley yet Paid the taxes today for whole year.
Kessie is happy. Am working at my old desk, & the home though desolate seems most like home of all.
Good night darlings. Heaven bless you Your loving father.
